

GLYNDEBOURNE 2023

Mozart's Don Giovanni

Friday 24th November

Glyndebourne opera house has been affected by cuts in its Arts Council funding. This has resulted in the cancellation of the touring aspect of Glyndebourne's productions. However, a shortened season at the opera house has been announced. This year the opera is Mozart's Don Giovanni, a new production of what is now seen as a problematic opera.

In creating Don Giovanni, Mozart wrote some wonderful music for a rather unsavoury character. Don Giovanni is a cruel seducer, murderer, a man with a total disregard for anyone. It is an opera that is beginning to cause a few problems for directors because of its treatment of women and his long-suffering servant Leporello. Andrei Bondarenko plays the Don. He won the Cardiff Singer of the year competition a few years ago.

Tickets are priced as follow:

£78 per person Central stalls, Foyer circle, central & side circle, circle centre boxes.
£72 per person for front stalls, rear seats foyer circle, centre boxes A&F, circle centre boxes, rear and side circle
£54 per person for the upper circle. foyer circle sides
