Ely Cathedral (Stain Glass Museum)

First established as a monastery by St Etheldreda in AD673, Ely Cathedral's heritage dates back centuries. Look for the painted wooden ceiling in the Nave, truly stunning stained glass in The Octagon, and the Lady Chapel, once alive with colourful glass and statues. Dedicated to the art of stained glass, the Stained Glass Museum boasts a nationally significant collection of stained glass, associated designs, materials and tools which reveal the development of this unique art from the 13th century to present day.

Norwich

Visit some of the eclectic mixture of old and new attractions within this delightful city. Don't miss Elm Hill, surrounded by lovely old Tudor buildings which now house appealing independent shops and cafes. There is also the spectacular cathedral and castle as well as a host of shopping opportunities in the conveniently pedestrianised centre.

Norwich Cathedral

The 900-year-old Cathedral is a place of worship, an historic treasure and an iconic landmark. Its 315-foot spire rises up above the city skyline and ancient architecture is breathtaking. Look out for the beautifully carved medieval roof bosses, the ancient Cloister and browse the broad range historic books in the library.

Norwich Castle

Built by William the Conquerer as a royal palace, visitors can soak up twelfth century life by exploring the medieval furnished Castle Keep. View a staggering 900 objects in the Gallery of Medieval Life, many of which were discovered in Norfolk and created in partnership with the British Museum. Other galleries are filled with art, archaeology and natural history.

Langham Glass and glass blowing demonstration

A family-run business in the market town of Fakenham, Langham Glass offers visitors the opportunity to learn about age-old glass-blowing techniques in the relaxed atmosphere of their studio. There is also a visitor centre, shop and café.

Sandringham House & Gardens and exclusive private House Tour

Experience this famous historic royal estate where five generations of the Royal Family have made it their home. Stroll through the beautifully laid out 60 acres of gardens for an insight into His Majesty's passion for horticulture. Afterwards enjoy an exclusive private house tour of Sandringham House to explore the richly decorated eight ground rooms adorned with breathtaking artwork and artefacts.

Norfolk Broads River cruise (1.5 hr)

A 90-minute circular cruise on the Norfolk Broads offers a chance to relax and take in the beautiful scenery, wildlife on the river and hear about the history with an interesting insight from the Captain.

Blickling Hall, Gardens and Park (NT)

The breath-taking Jacobean mansion sits at the heart of the magnificent garden and historic park. Featuring a nationally important collection of books in the Long Gallery, the house is surrounded by formal gardens dating back 300 years with intriguing landmarks, stunning views and amazing wildlife.

Kettles Yard

Set within a beautiful house, Kettle's Yard is the University of Cambridge's modern and contemporary art gallery. It hosts a remarkable collection of modern art and acclaimed exhibitions – an inspiring experience for all visitors.

Wensum Valley Hotel, Norwich

Located on the outskirts of Norwich, Wensum Valley Hotel, Golf & Country Club is in the village of Taverham. The 90 bedrooms are traditionally furnished and equipped with TV, hairdryer and tea/coffee making facilities. There is no lift but plenty of ground floor rooms are available. The Valley Restaurant and patio area boasts lovely views across the Wensum Valley. Guests can enjoy complimentary use of the leisure facilities, including a swimming pool, sauna, steam room, spa bath and gym.
