

LECTURE AND VISIT TO THE "INSIDE BLOOMSBURY" EXHIBITION
AT TATE BRITAIN AT 11.15 AM ON THURSDAY 19TH NOVEMBER 2026

We are visiting Tate Britain on Thursday 19th November for a pre-exhibition power point lecture at 1130 am in the Clore auditorium and then entrance to the exhibition which celebrates the extraordinary 50-year creative and personal partnership of core Bloomsbury Group artists Vanessa Bell (1879–1961) and Duncan Grant (1885–1978). There will be over 300 works, featuring vivid portraits, landscapes, still life and abstract pieces spanning their careers. Explore their pioneering design work across ceramics, textiles, furniture and the Omega workshops. There will be a reconstruction of Duncan Grant's studio relocated from their famous Sussex home, Charleston.

The cost will be £39 for non-members of the Tate; £20 for Tate members and £30 for Art Pass members. This includes the lecture and entrance to the exhibition. There can be no refunds.

Meeting place: In the foyer of the Clore Auditorium of Tate Britain at 11.15 on Thursday 19th November 2026, not in the main foyer.

Places can be obtained online by emailing marilyn.cameron@icloud.com. Please give the following information when requesting a place:
