

VISIT TO AUDLEY END – WEDNESDAY 27 SEPTEMBER

Join us on a visit to historic Audley End House with Capability Brown gardens where royalty once roamed and where you can explore 900 years of history. Founded as a monastery in the 12th century, Audley End was converted to a house in Jacobean times, remodelled by Robert Adam in the 18th Century, and has extensive servants' quarters. Polish SOE trained here during the Second World War and you will find a memorial to these resistance fighters in the extensive grounds, You may wish to purchase a light lunch in the cafe or bring a picnic to enjoy in the grounds. There is also a gift shop.

Tickets: The cost is £23 per person for those who hold current membership of English Heritage or National art Pass and £37 for those who are not members of those organisations. This includes coach travel, driver's gratuity, and entrance fees but does not include any refreshments. You must bring your English Heritage or National Art Pass card on the day. Tickets will be on sale from 09.30 am prior to our lecture on Wednesday 12th July. We will only accept payment by credit/debit card and tickets will be limited to two per member (both TASE members). We will not be selling online. In the event of your cancellation, refunds will only be made if places are later resold.
